

Newsletter for the Week of October 26, 2009

Great News:

On Saturday, the junior boys won the conference title in cross country, the junior girls placed second in conference, and the senior boys also took second in the conference. These students were named all conference: David Reed, Artie Wells, Jacob Worley, Peyton Troillett, Ian Reynolds, George Dickson, Jarod Urisote, Ryan Sanchez, (conference champ). Jake McClung, Hunter Wallace, Keaton Boardman, Keagan Wilbur, Eden Randolph, Jazmin Urioste, and Kenya Boes.

Joey Chatterton, James Reed, and Cassady Bloch will be presenting at the Arkansas GIS Users Conference on Wednesday at 3:00 P.M. at the Convention Center. This is quite an honor for these students.

Adam Hisaw was chosen Homecoming King and Ariel Walker was chosen Homecoming Queen at Friday nights game. Miranda Smith was recognized as Miss Basketball and Jacob Worley as Mr. Basketball. Congratulations to all of these students.

Last week the school district held its first ever school wide immunization clinic. Flu shots were given to 385 people, 289 children and 96 adults. Thanks to everyone who helped make this effort successful.
